SECRETARY NORMAN SMITH, COMMITTEEMEN TONY McSWEENEY, PETER TWIGG, NORMAN ROGERS, KEN UPTON AND NEVILLE AMY.

SEATED: TONY MILLER, JOHN HICKEY, CHAIRMAN KEITH MOREMON, TREASURER DAVID DRANSFIELD AND BRUCE McHUGH.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Members were saddened to learn of the passing on June 2 of long-time member Ray Stehr. Ray was one of the most popular personalities in the Club where he had a particularly wide circle of friends amongst our members and of course was well known in sporting circles, particularly through his long association with Eastern Suburbs Rugby League Club where he played for 19 years, served many years as captain, was subsequently coach, and played for NSW, Australia and went on to many administrative positions with the Club. Ray was also the managing director of John Cawsey & Sons, suppliers of Black & White Scotch. He will be sadly missed by us all.

On the initiative of bowler Allen Walker, an informal meeting of the Club's sports committee secretaries was held with a view to introducing a Tattersall's Club Sportsman of the Year Award. This meeting was followed shortly afterwards by a second meeting at which secretaries and committeemen from all of the clubs within Tattersall's attended. The idea was adopted with great enthusiasm. Details of adjudication and some other matters are to be worked out at subsequent meetings but generally speaking it will be awarded to a member of the Club who has the most outstanding performance, either in a sporting activity of the Club or administrative capacity on one of the committees. The award will be permanently on display in the Sportsman's Room and the recipient will each year receive a replica at a Club dinner.

Club member and executive director of the NSW Cricket Association, Bob Radford, has generously on behalf of his association, offered the Sheffield Shield to us for display to our members, although the date has not been set it will probably be in October. It is 17 years since the Sheffield Shield has been in New South Wales and I am sure members will be interested in viewing this trophy. In view of its size we will probably exhibit it in the First Floor Bar following a cocktail party. More details of this later.

With regard to the Ordinance 70 work your committee has appointed a building sub-committee to investigate the various proposals and to interview the builders, architects and property consultants who presented them. The sub-committee is to report its recommendation to the committee by the end of July.

Members will be pleased to learn that a female vocalist has been added to our dance-band combination for Saturday nights in the dining room.

The committee unanimously approved a recommendation by the Tattersall's Club Bowling Club to honour their past president Dr Hubert K. "Fuzz" Porter with honorary life membership of the Club. I was pleased to present it to him on behalf of the committee and members at the annual meeting of the bowling club in May. "Fuzz" Porter was a member of the bowling club for twenty years and was its president for 17 years. It was during his long career, particularly at Sydney Hospital, he became well known as one of Australia's leading gynaecologists. Congratulations Dr Porter for your outstanding contribution to the bowling club.

To highlight the decrease in usage of the Club I intend in each message in future to state actual numbers. The month of June was particularly bad when our drop in members' usage, excluding bar trade, was 1,058 compared with June of 1982, a drop of nine per cent.

CAN YOU HELP CONTRIBUTE TO TATTERSALL'S CLUB HISTORY?

Your Committee has decided to publish an official history of Tattersall's Club, from its inception in 1858.

In order to ensure that all aspects are covered, and every source of information developed, members are invited to provide material either written or photographic. It would be of assistance to the author in producing a record of the Club. Submissions should be factual rather than based on hearsay and therefore some proof of authenticity would be necessary.

We anticipate that the book will be available towards the end of November. It will be a hard-cover quality publication, beautifully presented and will be an ideal gift for Christmas or other special occasion and a collector's item which will give its owner a great deal of pride and pleasure.

It is a limited edition and will not initially be available through the normal retail outlets. Intending purchasers are invited to complete the order form at the bottom of this page and forward it to this office without delay so that an estimate of requirements for the print run can be made.

It is anticipated that the price will be in the vicinity of twenty dollars per copy but no money should be forwarded until this matter has been finalised.

TATTERSALL'S IS NOT A REFUGE FOR PUNTERS AND PROFESSIONALS!

Susan Wyndham walked into Tattersall's Club and reported her findings in a full-page article in the Sydney Morning Herald on May 21.

If you happened to read her article about the Pyrmont Bridge area the preceding week in the same paper you would agree it was excellent and good journalism. However, stepping into our Club — she was a lady in a lion's den. La femme trying to capture the real feeling of a Tattersall's member — even with help — was a big order.

Tattersall's Club is more than a racing club and not "a refuge for top punters and professionals" as reported. I believe the racing angle was over-emphasised.

Leading businessmen, men of politics, judges, top silk, legal, medical, banking and top-ranking sportsmen, plus many other fine people, are all in the Tattersall's scene. It's their place to relax and enjoy the companionship of fellow members and friends. We'll forgive her snide remark about the attire in the swimming and athletic section — it's comfortable and effective.

The various active sections of the epicurean, golf, the ski club, handball, bowling, swimming, billiard and snooker competitions all have keen support and provide enjoyment to the participants.

The pride and pleasure to entertain businesswise or socially is really important. We feel safe in the knowledge with a feeling of security — knowing IT WILL BE THE WAY YOU WANT AND EXPECT IT TO BE is very reassuring to the member.

The dear ladies are very welcome after 3.00 pm. Their member escorts

Please excuse me it's 3.00 pm, I have manly graces. A fine trained staff provide excellent service and a top-ranking chef prepares a fine menu.

Somewhere in Susan Wyndham's article I felt there was a "teeny-weeny" trace of jealousy in the fact "it's the last bastion for the male" — of men-only membership may be the reason.

Please excuse me it's 3.30 pm, I have to greet a lovely lady named Patricia.

I'm sure we will enjoy our evening at Tattersall's.

WINING, DINING AND CLUB NEWS

Successful bookmaker and Club member George Rohanna has retired from the racing scene. We wish him well and no doubt he will have more time to visit and enjoy Tattersall's Club.

Member Bill Aitkenhead got together with Mr and Mrs Albert McKenna, Mr and Mrs Bert Miller and Mrs Ted Kennedy. Bill's racehorse chalked up a Rosehill win. It started at 100/1 and even paid $9.50 for a 50 cent place investment. So there was great celebration. It's a race-owner's dream for this to happen. The Aitkenheads were highly delighted.

Tattersall's dining room was the scene for an evening arranged by Gerald Hayes for his son Stephen who celebrated his 14th birthday. His mother Margaret was very happy to have her daughter Carolyn in this happy family gathering, too.

Patrick Walsh was the organiser of an evening at Tattersall's Club to celebrate the 70th birthday of his mother-in-law, Mrs Alma Ackerman. Present were, wife Beverley, sons Michael (18) with friend Stephanie Powell, Anthony (16) and Sarah (8). Also attending was family friend Eril Tomkinson. It was a great way to celebrate the three score and ten occasion.

Neville Ridge was delighted to celebrate the birthdays of wife Betty and mother Mavis at Tattersall's. Also present were father Leo, youngest son Peter and friend Milton Braack. The Ridges and party guest thought the evening was delightful.

Robert Coombs with his wife are expecting their first child. They entertained Mrs Coomb's parents, Mr and Mrs John Kensit of Crookwell in the dining room. It was a joyful evening and of course the night will be one to remember.

Jim and Judy Hughes enjoyed their daughter Judy's 18th birthday in the Club with Margaret and Paul. The Hughes and their Canberra friends, May Jane Lees and Jane Cusack made up the happy Tattersall's evening party.

Geoffrey and Denise Pickles with children Anne, James and Edwin entertained Ian Tucker at dinner recently in the Club. Ian's parents were in South Africa where Alan ran in the Pietersburg-Durban 92 km marathon.

Member David Smith was happy to co-operate with friend Eric Leach. On Saturday, June 4, 1983 Maureen Leach celebrated her 40th birthday in the Club's dining room. The party being a complete surprise, was organised by her husband Eric with Club member David Smith. Guests came from as far as Penrith and Katoomba for the occasion. Andy and the dining room staff maintained their usual high standard of service and a great time was had by all.

Member Lindsay Clarke had an idea. A dinner! - celebrated in family fashion in the Tattersall's dining room on the fourth floor. It was a little dinner party to celebrate the school holiday break. Wife Marlene, daughter Fiona and son Lyndon thoroughly enjoyed the dinner, music, atmosphere and pleasant surroundings, "it was a wonderful evening," was the verdict of all present.

Club member, Max Bamam of the Clarendon Lodge racing stables, is offering his racing establishment for sale. Members are invited to phone him on (045) 77 3239.

It was pleasing to see genial and delightful life member John O'Neill back in the Club scene. John recently had a spell in hospital. I'm sure his many friends join me in saying 'Good on you John'. — Ed.

Member Alan Kittle celebrated a birthday party in the Tattersall's dining room last month. In the party we found the McGlees and the Engitos with friend S. Roche. It was a very enjoyable dinner and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

In the Tattersall's Function Room recently a group of St Joseph's College Old Boys from the 1930's hosted a celebration party for their old friend and tutor Brother Claude. The occasion was his 75th birthday. It was a very special occasion. A most enjoyable night for all and not only a great tribute to Brother Claude who has been closely associated with St Joseph's since 1931. It was a tribute to the outstanding men who dedicated their lives to the teaching order of Marist Brothers.

John Cross thought it would be a good idea to give the children a chance to relax before the next school and college term begins so he arranged an evening meal at Tattersall's. The party included John Cross and wife Josephine with children Mary-Louise, Marita and Catherine.

Mark and Noelene Diamond were delighted to arrange a 20th birthday party for daughter Michele. Their four children Steve, Michele, Doug and Ray joined in the family fun evening. It was really a happy evening.

Continued

Members and guests included Maurice Whelan, Vince Ryan, Noel Ford, Dr Billie Burke, Dr Maurice Renshaw, Jim McHugh, Rex Larnach-Jones, "Carb" Nicol, Jack Whitehurst, Larrie Rowe, Frank Sobb, Nigel Watts, "Mick" Love, Roy "Blondie" Smeaton and Mick Deery. It was a heartwarming gathering of "good blokes" paying tribute to a dedicated Brother.

Popular member Neville Merchant, as the photo shows, is 65 not out. Some of his Tattersall's Club mates arranged a Chinese food banquet to celebrate the happy day. Standing: Russell Merchant, Neville Merchant, Geoff Reece, Bob Hodgson and Les Hughes. Seated is Rick Hertz, Bill Kelleher and Ted Burrie. It was a surprise for this nifty advertising man. The happiness reflected in the members present is an indication of the mood of the gathering.

Committee meeting of Avalanche Ski Club (Perisher Valley), to organise the forthcoming snow season details. The party included fellow skiers Peter Williamson, Danny Culbert, Giff Brown and B. Beasley. The good news – it's snowing in the valley. This merry band really enjoy their snow involvement. We wish them a happy "white Christmas" season. – Ed.

MEMBERS

Regrettably, owing to lack of patronage by members and enormous rising costs we are unable to continue to open the bedroom accommodation on Saturday and Sunday evenings.

If there is any change in this situation you will be notified accordingly.

Warwick and Suzanne Caisley arranged a party just prior to the return to school of children Stewart and Anthea. The Tattersall's dinner included friend Susie Stevens. It's a great family way to gather at our delightful fourth floor room.

Member Roger Lind arranged a dinner party for sons Alexander and Jeffrey going back to boarding school (TAS at Armidale), special friend Belinda Waldron and sister Diana were happy to join in the happy evening at Tattersall's.

Albert Dickson chose our fourth floor's fine dining room as a place to celebrate wife Thalma's birthday. Daughters Tracey and Toni, son William, Dezma and Carl Malouf and children Mark, Craig and Kim. Guests also included Mr and Mrs Michael Walker, their sons Michael and Jeremy, also Belinda Dunbar, Barbra Michnowski, William O'Connell and Mieke Proost.

Tattersall's was the celebration venue for the wedding of the youngest daughter, (Jayne) of Nev and June McRoberts to Blaise Griffin (son of Brian and Clare Griffin). Club member W. "Bill" Wood and Dr C. G. McLoughlin were there for this very special date at Tattersall's.

Tattersall's Club was the scene for Malcolm Bush's 18th birthday celebration. Sara Jane Bush, daughter of Malcolm and Julie Bush were in the party. Brother James and Aaron were there to enjoy the dinner in the Club.

David and Jenny Alder were pleased to arrange a dinner party for their eldest son Baron. It was in celebration of his 13th birthday. He was joined by his brother, Toby and his friends Christopher Niesche and Danny Hausman. We understand Baron was very thrilled and just can't wait for his 14th birthday for a return party.

Barry Edstein was highly delighted to arrange a celebration dinner at Tattersall's. The occasion was in recognition of the graduation of Barry's son John Edstein (also a member of the Club). He achieved the fine title of Master of Laws with Honours.

Cliff Shaffron was involved in a meeting with visitors from overseas. At the conclusion of business they retired to Tattersall's athletic department to relax. Then a delightful dinner in the Club made the whole exercise just perfect.

Roy and Dorothy Cato are great supporters of Tattersall's Club. They invited Mr and Mrs Clyde Eather and Mr and Mrs Sam Bond to a special birthday party for Dorothy. It was one of the many pleasant evenings they have spent at Tattersall's.

Jeff Woppard and John Hoyle at the informal evening to launch the big 1983 Tattersall's Club snooker tournament.

It was Neville Merchants Company's pleasure to entertain business, financial and advertising executives. "We seldom have an opportunity to entertain in an atmosphere of social get-together like Tattersall's. It's the real place to entertain," said Neville. "I say Tattersall's can't be bettered for service plus the friendly and consistent feeling of being welcome – I thought the whole evening was outstanding," he concluded. Guests were the company's directors and the financial director of "MOJO" (one of Neville's important clients).

JOYES, McCORMACKS AND JACK LEVY TO THE FORE

SWIM NOTES — by Sam Block

Ian and Ted Joye have romped to the front in the Jack Mandel Family Event registering 6½ points almost in succession. Ian especially is swimming in effortless style and will be a major threat in the A Grade Championships.

Mike McCormack deserves to land his second Silver Sharpe Trophy, he has really swum his heart out chasing the long markers on a handicap of 21 over the whole season, but that handicapper "fella" has caught up with him at last.

Gerald McCormack is being hard pressed by veteran Jack Levy in the Hillston Event but looks the eventual winner.

Jovial Jack Levy has the Kominatos Trophy all sewn up and as Johnny Ward says "a nicer bloke would be hard to find". A few noteworthy performances by wee George Johnson have caught the eyes of the onlookers. Keep up with the good work.

My heart bleeds for poor Tony King whose position at the head of Tom Powell's Trophy has been toppled in the last few weeks. In future take your holidays when the season ends, Tony.

The several club championships will have been held by the time this edition goes to press with the ultimate winners well hidden. Former champ Neil Rogers and Alex Hillston are overseas in Greece. Johnny Fuller will be abroad, Leigh Emery is unavailable so the field will be narrowed down to Greg Goold, Harry Turner, Tony King, John Stubbs, Mike McCormack, Hugh Keller, John Barrell, Ken Glover and Chris Gunson.

A Grade will consist of those on a handicap of 22-23 whilst B Grade will be 24 onwards.

PARS

David De Mestre who met with a nasty fall off his roof is out of hospital and making good progress towards recovery. David is still bed-ridden but keeps his pecker up backing a few winners.

Jack O'Neill is recovering after a spell in Royal North Shore. "I'll be ready for the one for the road with Bill Hannan," said Jack.

W. (Bill) Shephard is out of hospital and expects to be back at the pool in the next few days.

Had a call from Frank Taylor, a member for many years, enquiring after old friends. He has attained the age of 96 years, many of them enjoyed in Tattersall's pool.

Noticed that J.W. Tidmarsh passed away during last month. To his family we express our deepest sympathy and condolences.

At the entrance to the 4th Floor Dining Room.

Tattersall's Club — founded one hundred and twenty-five years ago . . .

It all began in a Pitt Street hotel called Mayor's Inn, owned by William John O'Brien. The pub's Tin Bar was the meeting place for all the sportsmen of Sydney and country visitors who came to town for the horse racing. Inspired by his patrons, O'Brien soon changed the hotel's name to Tattersall's, after the late Englishman Richard Tattersall, who had run a famous horse market and racing subscription room near Hyde Park corner.

In 1858 a group of men met at the hotel to establish Tattersall's Club. A report in the sporting and arts journal Bell's Life in Sydney was full of praise for the new club: "A recognised establishment of this kind is one of the most effectual aids towards preserving that integrity and good faith between man and man, departures from which occasionally, though we rejoice to add, in this colony, rarely occur. The support which these Subscription Rooms have received from patrons of the Turf in all quarters, including the great Tattersall's of the British Empire capital, is a matter of history".

The Club's first race meeting was at Randwick on January 3, 1865, and its second a year later. Both were a great success and the membership grew quickly from the original 40 men.

In the 1870s O'Brien sold the hotel to George Adams, a publican and grazier, who went on to extend it and the Tattersall's sweeps. For years Adams fought with State and Federal Governments over the legality of his racing sweepstakes. When he died in 1904 he surprised all the beneficiaries of his will by leaving detailed instructions for, among other things, the continuation of the very rich sweeps.

Meanwhile though, the members of Tattersall's Club decided that it needed a home of its own. In 1890 they bought a piece of land in Pitt Street and built an elegant building which has just recently been bought by City Tattersall's Club for extensions to its own clubhouse.

Frank Wilkinson remarked in his notes of 1922 that "It was a proud day for the chairman (Mr J.B. Oliffe) and the committee when they entered into possession of their splendid new premises. Thus, in the course of a little over 50 years, the Club, which made such an unpretentious start in 1858, had grown into the leading institution of the kind in Australia, and possessed of the finest premises in the world".

Tattersall's moved to its present premises in 1927. The "new" building is almost unchanged since the day it was built. It runs in a narrow L-shape from Elizabeth to Castlereagh Street, between Park and Market Streets. The last annual report values the land and buildings at $4 million. The Club owns it outright.

SKI CLUB

Tattersall's Club skiers
"dining out" at Perisher Valley.

Along with all other skiers Tattersall's snow enthusiasts are wondering what to expect of the 1983 season. All skiers are very wary following the disaster of the 1982 season, the worst-ever recorded snow season in Australia.

One thing going for this year's skiers is that the records over the past thirty years show that a poor season is usually followed by fair to good snow falls the ensuing year.

With the expectation that 1983 will be a skiable year, Tattersall's members have strongly supported the annual outings at Thredbo and Perisher. The 1983 skiers include such well-known Tattersall's members as Ashley Reed,

Anthony Berkman is planning to record the Perisher action on video for (edited) screening at a Ski Club social night in September and it is hoped to arrange for the Thredbo skiers to be similarly recorded. Details of the social night to wind up the season are available from Tattersall's office and the Ski Club will welcome any Tattersall's member and his family whether they are skiers or not. A special invitation is extended to those wishing to join with Tattersall's skiers during the 1984 season and to those Tattersall's members who ski with their lodges or clubs.

Perisher Valley skiers will be sorry to hear that the restaurant and terminal amenities at the "Double Chair" were completely razed by fire during April just after extensive improvements and renovations had been completed. The police regard the fire as arson. In spite of the loss of these amenities, it is understood that the "chair" will be able to operate, and that temporary amenities will be available during the season.

The good news of course is that all ski resorts have kept their lift prices at the 1982 levels.

Best of luck to Tattersall's skiers in 1983 and the next edition will have first-hand accounts of our activities in the snow.

HANDBALL

Early rounds in this year's most prestigious handball event, Tattersall's Plate, will commence in mid-August with the final to be decided on the handball presentation night in October.

The Plate is now in its eleventh year of competition and was instituted by committee man and handball president Norman Rogers whose son Ron carried off the first two events. Subsequent winners are Tattersall's handballers Michael O'Dea and Ray Hopkins and present title-holder Noel Vella.

An illustrious field will face the starter. The favourite at about "a yours for mine quote" must be Bondi's Noel Vella who will be chasing his fifth title. He has suffered some defeats at other clubs this season but taking into consideration the death-like grip that he appears to have on this event and played on a surface that suits his attacking game, the prospects of not acquiring one more trophy appears dim in the extreme.

Representatives from other clubs include greats like Clovelly's Gary Stubbs and Bob Green and John Ford and Frank Caldwell from the Bondi Icebergs Club.

Tattersall's Club will be represented by Ron and Neil Rogers, Ray Hopkins, John McGuire, Bob Lipman, Bill Hannan, Bill Blakemore, Charles Robinson, Ven Hrouda, Malcolm Fuller, Ken Glass, Tony Baine, Bob Hill, Bill Sellen, John Byrne, David Dobbin, Paul Vrachnas and Bruce Upcroft.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

A and B grade championship draws have been exhibited in prominent places in the Club and players are advised, earnestly, to zealously apply themselves to a rapid completion of at least the early rounds.

The A grade field is an evenly-balanced one and the winner is well concealed.

The first-round draw is Ray Hopkins v John Maguire, Bob Lipman v Bill Hannan, Bill Blakemore v Norman Rogers, Charles Robinson v Mal Fuller, Ven Hrouda v Ken Glass, Tony Baine v Bob Callaghan, Bob Hill v Bill Sellen and Ron Rogers v John Byrne.

The B grade championship appears to be at the mercy of Bruce Upcroft and David Dobbin who is opposed to Bill Sellen in the first round. The remainder of the draw is Terry Jackman v David Castle, Rod Fisher v Bill Orme, Don Stait v Martin McCurrich, Sid Kay v John Barnes, Stan Heaton and Paul Vrachnas and Peter Barnes v Greg Rogers.

C GRADE AND NOVICE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Entries are sought for these events and names with telephone numbers should be clearly written beneath the heading considered most suitable.

Why not try both?
Double Handicap:

Two doubles competitions are offered enthusiasts.

The popular John Barnes Promotion, the play-as-you-come handicap doubles event and a proposed handicap, choose your own partner, to be played either midday or by arrangement.

Again make suitable entries on the notices.

BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER

The 1983 snooker draw announcement evening was a rattling success.

The new format including a lavish smorgasbord was acclaimed by everybody.

Your energetic snooker sub-committee will be seeking new ideas each year.

Last year's winner Geoff Woollard showed that the handicappers have not yet got his measure by recording a brilliant win over Fred Wastie in the qualifying round.

A good win was registered by Sir Nicholas Shehadie. Michael Armstrong playing off 47 made a 31 break in his first-round win.

Silent Allan Frankish demonstrated his prowess with the cue by an easy win.

Eddie Charlton justified his position as a short-priced favourite for the tournament by defeating Ossie Roberts.

Our snooker secretary and match organiser Syd Lane is putting three and four games on per day, so members keep your eyes on the notice board in the main foyer for each week's matches.

Bill Henneberry also gave a brilliant display of potting and safety play in winning his first round. He compiled the most number of points so far in the tournament — 131.

Tattersall's Bowlers Win Trophy Back

Annual match versus City Tattersall's, played recently at Kensington, the match finished in a cliff-hanger between the clubs, 10 teams each side.

Tattersall's won by a close margin of three shots 201/198. So the Laurie Taylor Trophy is back in the Club for the first time since 1970, suitably engraved and polished alongside the turf bowlers' interstate replica won last year.

Well done Tattersall's, thank you City Tattersall's and Kensington Bowling Club for a happy day.

CLUB PAIRS — FINAL AT CITY

Jim Whyte and Jim (E.J.) Williams leading Vic Vadas and Harold Hill in a good game. (Harold has not been saying nice things about you Jim!).

Congratulations to both teams — we have not forgotten your well-won prizes.

SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIPS 1983

Draw will be made shortly and displayed on the Club notice board by the match committee.

THURSDAY BOWLS

Green space is available each week for the social games, such as Double Bay, City and Rose Bay, etc as required.

Still please phone before 12 noon on 264 6111 on Thursdays if you are playing. Organised matches will be arranged as often as possible to keep the Tattersall's spirit alive. Coming games are: versus Newcastle (September-October). Versus local clubs, Thursdays 1 and 4 of each month in games arranged by match committee. Join the bowling action, it's great fun.

Good bowling.

KILLARA — Testing Day for Golfers

Early showers threatened but eventually 63 starters teed off in ideal conditions to face a rather testing Killara layout. Top-dressed greens made putts hard to "buy" and scoring was generally poor.

Four-ball was won by Joe Owen and visitor Dennis Ford with 45 points, Joe having 38 on his own, despite complaints of a bad back! Runners-up were perpetual trophy receiver, Don Grattan and Gosford visitor Peter Quinn with 44 points on a count-back from Victor Green and Frank Maher from the Pymble Club.

Victor atoned for his defeat in the four-ball by winning the members' singles with a fine score of 39 points, from Manly "Presso" Doug Cameron on 37, with Tony Pennefather and Col Pearce each a further point away on 36.

Visitors' singles was won through local knowledge by Ian Stanners with 39, from Terry Lambert on 38 and Terry Coates on 36.

Only two names appeared on the nearest-the-pin marker, Len Clarke edging out Terry Coates by the barest of margins. Terry reckoned it was the best shot he hit all day . . . and made a few statements — but not for the press. As they say in golf "every shot pleases someone".

Many thanks to Killara for the use of their course and for the hospitality offered by the catering and bar staff.

Forthcoming events are: Royal Sydney — Friday, July 15; The Australian — Friday, August 12; The Lakes — Thursday, September 15; Pymble — Tuesday, October 4; Manly (Championship) — Thursday, December 15.

Epicurean Club Sell-Out Evening!

One of the most energetic and supportive sections of Tattersall's Club activities is the Epicurean Club.

James Galway and his magic flute turned out to be a magical attraction for Tattersall's members, as was shown by the success of the Epicurean Club's dinner and concert evening in May.

So popular was the event that bookings had to be closed off a week early and even then many of those who attended the concert at the Opera House could not be accommodated in the dining room.

Said Peter Golding, Epicurean committee man who arranged the evening: "We thought we might have about 100 people present, but when we cut off the bookings 176 had applied.

"To keep faith with regular Saturday night diners, it was decided that our dining room bookings should be restricted to 125, so unfortunately many members had to make other arrangements.

"We are delighted the evening was such a success but are naturally sorry that we had to limit the numbers, causing disappointment to many members."

The James Galway evening, which included taxi transport to and from the Club, concluded with supper.

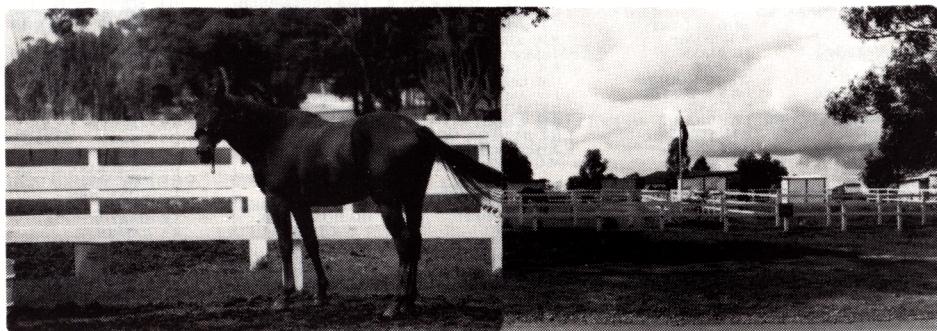

Keep up the good work Epicureans, it's a great Club spirit. — Ed.

POPULAR DAVID COHEN, AN ACHIEVER ON AND OFF THE RACETRACK

David comes from a bookmaking family, his grandfather, George (Jumbo) Barnett, whose horse Cetrone won the AJC Derby in 1915 and his late father, Charles Cohen, a member of this Club, were both highly-respected bookmakers. His horses race in the family colours. David, who joined this Club in 1953, has been a bookmaker since 1946 having served as a F/O navigator with the RAAF in Europe and completing some 42 flights over Germany. As well as his bookmaking profession he also conducted a very successful wholesale grocery business and retail liquor store until his retirement in 1978. His wife Valerie and three sons Brian, Gary and Greg have been a great inspiration and help to him over many years. He believes racing is very well conducted in this State and that the honorary administration of both the AJC and STC committees is in the very best interests of all parties concerned in this great industry. Bookmaking has changed over the years and to survive the enormous overheads one has to be very alert and be able to adjust to varying conditions. He is of the opinion that the racing public is best served by the competition between bookmakers and totalisators. Belonging to the NSW Golf Club, Double Bay Bowling and the City Bowling Clubs ensures that all David's sporttime is taken care of.

Mark Foy's Travel

For all your travel requirements

I'd like to give you a free air ticket

And I can do it quite easily with the new Pan Am World Pass. Every time you fly Pan Am you'll be accumulating mileage all of which goes toward free travel benefits. It's quite simple, for example:-

If you buy - 4 clipper class return trips to Los Angeles . . .

You get - 2 free cabin class tickets to the U.S.A.

If you buy - 4 first class return trips to New York . . .

You get - 2 free first class tickets to the U.S.A.

If you buy - 4 Clipper class return trips to London . . .

You get - 1 free clipper class unlimited travel ticket for 30 days.

If you buy - 2 first class return trips to London and 4 clipper class return trips to New York.

You get - 2 free World pass 30 first class tickets unlimited travel for 30 days.

Even shorter trips will accumulate world pass mileage which will contribute toward a free or discounted ticket.

Come along and see me soon, I'd love to give you a free ticket!

First Class Round World Airfares.
Combining Pan Am with Cathay Pacific from $4469 - save over $2000!
